H.N.B. P.G. College organizes and participates in various extension of activities to promote the College neighbourhood-Community network. Major emphasis is given to student engagement, service orientation and holistic development of students such that they could make a difference and make a contribution towards good citizenship.

The college organizes several extension activities to promote the institute-neighbourhood community to sensitize the students towards community needs. The students of our college actively participate in social service activities leading to their overall development. The college constructively runs National Service Scheme (NSS) and Rover-Rangers Units. Through these units, the college approaches various extension activities in the neighbourhood community.

NSS organizes a seven-day residential camp in the villages which is located nearby the college and several activities were carried out by NSS volunteers addressing social issues which included cleanliness, tree plantation, water conservation through the construction of the pond and aware people about various methods of using water economically in agriculture sector such that water could be conserved along with road construction, sharamdaan, Social interaction, Group discussion, Eradication of superstition, Beti bachao Beti padhao, Environmental awareness, Women empowerment, National Integrity, Aids awareness, Blood donation camp, Health check-up camp, Veterinary guidance, Farmers meet, Awareness about farmer's suicide etc. Besides this 7 Days camps are organised every year in which volunteers and community members are sensitised to social issues, e.g., environment, immunisation, preliminary health, gender equality, adult education through rallies, awareness campaigns and intellectual sessions, etc.

The college also has Bharat Scout Guide units which are known as Rover-Rangers. It aims to develop qualities of leadership, patriotism, maintaining discipline, character building, the spirit of Adventure and the ideal of self-service.

Other than NSS and Rover-Rangers units, the various departments of the college is conscious of their responsibilities for shaping students into responsible citizens of the country by making students aware of social issues through various programmes like Environmental Awareness, Personal Health and Hygiene, Diet awareness, Road Safety, Tree Plantation, Soil and Water Testing, Plastic eradication, No vehicle day, Janani surksha, Programme on female foeticide, organizing a visit to Orphanages and Anganwadi, Voters awareness, Blood group detection, Health check-up camps, Blood donation camps, Traditional culture values, Family values, Respect to National Flag, etc.

All these mentioned activities have positive impacts on the students and it developed student community relationships, leadership skills and self-confidence of students. It also helped in cultivating the hidden personality of students and creating awareness among students.
